Korea Development Bank signed MOU with RCI Capital Group Inc.

Korea Development Bank and RCI Capital Group Inc. signed an MOU to form a collaborative partnership on development of natural resource projects in Canada.

The agreement will support Korean companies to locate potential resource development projects in Canada and to help them to find local funding.

This is a first time that a local financial institution is targeting an advanced country such as Canada in terms of resource development.

RCI Capital Group Inc manages about 1.6 billion in investor capital and engages also with Canadian aboriginal communities focusing on resource development and financial investment.
